

AN EYE FOR DETAILS

Visually appealing and creative is what makes up visual designer Falguni Gokhale's closet

Comfort Zone

The massage pillow is a completely relaxing thing after a day's work. I use it to massage my neck. Sometimes I put my feet up on it too. It is my favourite thing to do while watching television or listening to music.

Cover Up

All my stoles are from Indira Broker and she is my favourite stole designer. I love the materials textures and aplomb of her style.

Cinema Paradiso

I love watching movies and coming from a visual design profession, the visual quality of a film is as much of importance to me as the subject of the film. My favourite actor is to be Anthony Hopkins while Pedro Almodavar is my favourite director.

Draw Right

The sketch pad and the aquarile pencils are very handy. I keep them with me all the time. I often sketch while listening to music and I make it a point to sketch at least once a day and distribute it among my friends.

Top It All

I spend time either in my office or my design studio. So, most of my tops are formal and work related. I love embroidery and simple cuts for my tops or kurtas.

Looking Back

The photographs are a blast from the past.

Cream Of The Matter

I just love lotions and creams. I am very loyal to one brand. Nivea happens to a favourite.

Beaded Beauty

I am not a jewellery person. I put them on only when I remember to. Most of these are designed by me but I have picked some of them from other places too.

Best Friends

Books are my companions. These are some of my favourite authors and I read my books according to my moods. At times, I read two-three books at once. It is all about that moment.

Carry On

I have little party bags and most of them are embroidered and have
